Questions to ponder this week:

What's in a name? Throughout scripture names are given and, as in this week's story, names are exchanged to reflect the call, identity, and giftedness of the person being re-named.

Ask family members why you were given the name you were given, do you have any nicknames, or has your name been changed in any other way over the years? What is your favourite name for yourself? Which do others prefer? Why?

Why did God give the Ten Commandments to people? How do rules help shape a community to live together? How do rules become twisted and turned in ways that harm people? How do rules become written in your heart and in your mind? Which of God's rules and Jesus' stories teach you best about kindness and love?
